ABOUT

The Jewish Healthcare Foundation (JHF) is recruiting graduate students interested in innovations in healthcare delivery, policy, and patient safety for paid summer internship opportunities. JHF is a public charity with two non-profit operating arms—the Pittsburgh Regional Health Initiative (PRHI) and Health Careers Futures (HCF)—that offers a unique blend of research, education, grantmaking, and program management to improve population health and the outcomes of care, with a focus on quality, efficiency, and safety of health care.

2016 JHF Summer Interns

As an intern, you will:

- gain exposure to JHF, PRHI, and HCF,
- learn PRHI's Perfecting Patient CareSM quality improvement methodology for health professionals,
- report to a mentor and work with a project team,
- contribute to team projects (preliminary list below), and
- present your experience and contributions to staff and Boards
